

Market Outlook

THE WEEK THAT WAS

Shares spurt on broad based buying support

The market ended with strong gains as positive global cues boosted investors sentiment. Investors' risk appetite also improved after data showed inflation eased in August, increasing the likelihood that the central bank will keep interest rates on hold in October. The Sensex ended above the psychologically important 38,000 mark.

The Sensex surged 372.68 points or 0.99% to settle at 38,090.64, its highest closing level since 7 September 2018. The index rose 407.66 points, or 1.08% at the day's high of 38,125.62. The index rose 141.56 points, or 0.38% at the day's low of 37,859.52.

The Nifty 50 index advanced 145.30 points or 1.28% to settle at 11,515.20, its highest closing level since 7 September 2018. The index rose 153.35 points, or 1.35% at the day's high of 11,523.25. The index rose 60.65 points, or 0.53% at the day's low of 11,430.55.

Among secondary barometers, the BSE Mid-Cap index rose 1.62%. The BSE Small-Cap index rose 1.38%. Both these indices outperformed the Sensex.

The market breadth, indicating the overall health of the market, was strong. On BSE, 1825 shares rose and 832 shares fell. A total of 174 shares were unchanged.

On the data front, the annual rate of inflation, based on monthly Wholesale Price Index (WPI), stood at 4.53% (provisional) for the month of August 2018 (over August 2017) as compared to 5.09% (provisional) for the previous month and 3.24% during the corresponding month of the previous year. The data was unveiled during trading hours today, 14 September 2018.

The all-India general consumer price inflation (CPI) inflation dipped 3.69% in August 2018 (new base 2012=100), compared with 4.17% in July 2018. The corresponding provisional inflation rate for rural area was 3.41% and urban area 3.99% in August 2018 as against 4.11% and 4.32% in July 2018. The core CPI inflation declined to 5.90% in August 2018 compared with 6.29% in July 2018. The data was announced after market hours on Wednesday, 12 September 2018.

India's industrial production (base year 2011-12=100) growth remained nearly flat and healthy at 6.6% in July 2018, compared with 6.9% growth recorded in June 2018. The industrial production growth for June 2018 has been revised marginally downwards from 7% increase reported provisionally. The data was announced after market hours on Wednesday, 12 September 2018.

Overseas, European stocks were trading higher Friday, after an unexpectedly sharp interest rate hike in crisis-hit Turkey supported the lira and global risk appetite. Turkey's central bank moved to support a tumbling lira on Thursday, lifting interest rates by 625 basis points to 24%.

Asia markets ended higher. The gains, however, were tampered by enduring concerns around trade following a tweet from US President Donald Trump.

Trump said on Thursday that Washington was "under no pressure to make a deal with China, they are under pressure to make a deal with us." He added that the US "will soon be taking in billions in tariffs & making products at home."

Trump's response came after reports on Wednesday said the US was seeking to restart trade negotiations with China as the two economic powerhouses remain locked in conflict with no resolution in sight.

Meanwhile, China reported better-than-expected industrial output and retail sales on Friday, but a key investment gauge fell to a fresh record low. Industrial output rose 6.1% in August from a year earlier, the National Bureau of Statistics (NBS) said, a tick better than July. But production of key goods including motor vehicles and transport equipment actually fell. Output of cars barely grew, while crude steel production increased by just a third of the pace in the previous month. Retail sales rose 9% on-year. Fixed-asset investment growth slowed to 5.3% in January-August from the same period a year earlier, weighed down once again by slowing infrastructure growth.

US stocks closed higher Thursday, with the S&P 500 up for a fourth straight session on the back of strong technology shares. News that China may be receptive to overtures from the US on new talks also soothed trade-related jitters.

On the US data front, the consumer-price index rose by 0.2% in August, its fifth straight increase. Separately, initial jobless claims fell slightly in the latest week, coming in at a 49-year low.

Meanwhile, the European Central Bank (ECB) made no change on interest rates, and repeated that it does not expect any changes until summer 2019 at least as it remains on track to end its bond-buying program in December. The ECB slightly trimmed its GDP growth forecasts for both 2018 and 2019, and ECB President Mario Draghi said that risks to the euro area's growth outlook were "broadly balanced."

In the global commodities markets, Brent for November 2018 settlement was up 8 cents at $78.26 a barrel. The contract had fallen $1.56 a barrel or 1.96% to settle at $78.18 a barrel during the previous trading session.

In the foreign exchange market, the rupee edged higher against the dollar. The partially convertible rupee was hovering at 71.96, compared with its close of 72.185 during the previous trading session.

WEEK AHEAD

RBI policy, September quarter results to guide market further; current volatility could sustain

We are seeing a lot of volatility in the markets and may remain so in this month's expiry. RBI monetary policy meeting and results season in October will give the markets further guidance.
